.....
Background: (Complete whatever questions are appropriate)

- Give a brief paragraph about your jobs/responsibilities while at Intel.
- What do you miss most about working at Intel – if anything?
- How do you spend your time now that you are retired?
- If you have hobbies, please tell us about them.
- Do you have tips for new retirees that can make the transition easier?
- What did you apply from your time at Intel to your “Life After Intel”?
- Please provide photos (jpg if possible) of yourself and of your “Life After Intel”.
- May we put your email address in the article in case other retirees wish to contact you?

Transitioning to a New Career:

Please provide a brief summary of your new career. If you own your own business, please share how you got started, the challenges and rewards you encountered, advice you would give to others, etc.

If you have a business that requires licensing, insurance or bonding, please include a line that indicates your compliance with those requirements.

If you would like to publicize a web site for your business, please provide the URL.

Would you like your business listed in the Retiree Owned Business Directory at intelretiree.com?

Note: Listing your business does not translate to an endorsement. Intel Retiree Organization is a volunteer organization that does not endorse any business nor accept paid advertising. Information on our website, in our News Flash or in our Newsletter is provided as a service to Intel retirees.

Please include an email address so the story can be sent to you for review and a phone number (optional) in case we have questions. Also, pictures of you engaging in your new career are important to provide interest to the story.

Thanks for your participation. Retirees enjoy learning about other retirees and may like to support a retiree owned business.
