Rob Aslett

Focused on the Impact of Giving, not Just the Art of Giving

"Venture philanthropy is a very fulfilling option for those looking to contribute to the community."

Rob has many accomplishments, including co-authoring a book, volunteering for Social Venture Partners (Portland), and helping the Center for African Immigrants & Refugees of Oregon. He shares his knowledge and expertise to make a difference in lives throughout his community.

Life After Intel: Rob Aslett

Story by Howard High

Focused on the Impact of Giving, not Just the Art of Giving

When Rob Aslett retired in 2018, he wanted to use his experience and skills developed over 30 years at Intel to help Portland's nonprofits achieve their goals. Rob joined Social Venture Partners (SVP) Portland. SVP is part of an international network of local partners designed to help individuals amplify their giving.

Some partners provide a monetary donation, while others combine that with providing advice and/or hands-on help to implement important capabilities. Other partners focus on the running of SVP itself by participating in internal committees. Rob chose to be active in all of those areas. Read more about Rob's Life After Intel.

IRO WEBSITE COMMITTEE UPDATE

The IRO Website Committee welcomes two new members: Steve Poehlman and Oliver Chen. Both have extensive WordPress experience that will be a big help to the team as the IRO website transitions to Block Editor. Welcome aboard Steve & Oliver!

If you are interested in supporting the IRO Website Committee, we are looking for retirees proficient in editing content in WordPress. Website editor support consists of a month-long commitment (once or twice a year), to make any requested edits to the site. No content creation is required. If you want to join the web team, please contact Irfan Aziz, irfanaziz.pdx@gmail.com

INTEL LOOKS ON TRACK TO FIX ITS CORE PROBLEMS

One year after CEO Pat Gelsinger introduced IDM 2.0, Intel seems to be firing on all cylinders

INTEL PLANS INVESTMENTS IN EUROPE

Intel has announced plans for an initial investment of more than 33 billion euros to build a leading-edge semiconductor fab mega-site in Germany, to establish a new research and development (R&D) and design hub in France, and to expand capacities in R&D, manufacturing, foundry services and back-end production in Ireland, Italy, Poland, and Spain.

VOLUNTEER and DONATION (BENEVITY) – Ben Manny & Annette Bachmeier, Co-chairs

WILL INTEL STILL MATCH DONATIONS TO HELP UKRAINE?

YES!!! While the Intel Foundation's Ukraine Humanitarian Relief campaign has ended, retiree donations to eligible causes continue to be matched under the Foundation's Donation Matching program guidelines.

The Intel Foundation launches unique campaigns to help with natural disasters and crisis relief efforts. These campaigns select eligible causes with total donations subject to a matching cap. This IRO web page has more details on how these campaigns work.

The Ukraine Humanitarian relief campaign's initial matching cap was $250,000. Due to the tremendous response, this cap was doubled twice to $1 million, which raised a total of $2 million dollars before the scheduled end of the campaign. Intel continues to work with Benevity to identify causes that are providing Ukraine humanitarian relief. These are found on this Benevity webpage.

You will need a Benevity account to access this page and to take advantage of Intel's Donation Matching Program. Instructions for establishing an account are given on Benevity's Intel Login portal. If you have any issues making a matching donation to help Ukraine, email the retiree mailbox.
